THERE are thousands of You no Men, as well as Middle Agip and Old Men, who are suffering to some extent from the above diseases. Many, perhaps, are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed. are not aware of their true condition, or when assistance is really needed.

For the bencht of such, we herewith give a few of the most common symptoms, viz: Wakness of the Back and Limbs, Pain in the Head and Side, dimness of Sight, Pols and Wichs before the Eyes, Polyitation of the Heart, Pay-popsia, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Aversion to Society, Silf-Distrust, Timidity, etc. For each and all of the above symptoms these remedies will be tound a "Sovereign Balm."

These remedies embrace three prescriptions: A hox of Postels, a box of Vercous Tonic Pills, and a box of Vercous Tonic Pills, and a box of Virile Timic Pills, all of which have important offices to perorm, and should be used together in every case. Their superiority over other modes of treatment may be briefly stated as fellows, viz:

nal emissions.

IT They remove local weakness, eausing the organs to assume their natural tone and vigor.

IT They strengthen the constitution by overcoming nervous debility and general weakness.

It They enliven the spirits, which are usually depressed, by expelling all exciting causes from the system.

Messrs. J. N. Harris & Co.:

Gentlemen:—The confidence I have in Perry Davis' Pain Killer as a reucely for Colds. Coughs. Burns Spraius, and Rheumatism, for the cure of which have successfully used it, induces me to cheerfully recommend its wirtnes to others.

A few months ago I had recourse to it to destrey a felon; although I had never heard of its heing used for that purpose; but having suffered intensely from a former one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pain Killer freely for about fifteen minutes at evening, and repeated the appliention very briefly the next moraing, which entirely destroyed the feloa, and increused my confidence in the utility of the remedy.

THE KISS IN SCHOOL.

A District school, not far away,
'Mid Berkshire hills, one winter's day.
Was humming with its wonted noise
Of three-score mingled girls and boys;
Some few upon their task intent,
But moroon furtive mischief bent;
The while the master's downward look
Was fastened on a copy-book;
When suddenty, behind his back,
Rose, sharp and clear, a rousing smack!
As 'twere a Dattery of bliss
Let off in one tremendous kiss!
"What's that?" the startled master cries;
"What's that?" the startled master cries;
"What's that?" the startled master cries;
"Wath William Willith, if you pleathe,
I thaw him kith Thuthanna Peathe!"
With frown to make a statue thrill.
The master thundered—"Hither, Will!"
Like wretch o'ertaken in his back,
"Will" hung his head in fear and shame.
Andto the awful presence came—
A great, green, bashful simpleton,
The but of all good-natored from—
With smile suppressed, and birch upraised,
That you, my biggist pupil, should
Be guilty of an actso rude!
Before the whole set school, to boot!—
What evil genius put you ro'!?"
"Twas she, berself, sir," sobbed the lad;
"I didn't meau to be so bad—
But when Sasanna shook her curls,
And dursn't kiss a baby's doll,
I couldn't stand it, sir, at all,
But, up and kissed her, on the spot!
I know—boo hoo—I ought to not.
But, somehow, from her look—boo hoo—I thought she kind o' wished me to!"
Feeling in England! Towards the Unit

The Feeling in England Towards the United States.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Herald, writing under date of September 27,

As things are at present, England, to the intense disgust of Napoleon III, will not net overtly against the United States. A reverse, however, would change this hesitation, I fear, to quick action, and France would succeed in her designs against the giant Republic.

By the way, I may remark that the journals as well as the people of Lyons are shockingly ignorant of the causes and prosnects of the war in the United States; nor is this wonderful when we consider the influence the London Times, London Herald, London Sun, and almost all the other leading papers of England, and their mouthpiece at Paris (Galignani's Messenger) have on the French ress, and indeed the press of the entire coninent. But they must one day become bet ter enlightened by the "logic of events," if not by the "logic of words." We must wait in patience.

The following dispatch was received and forwarded to headquarters, at St. Louis:

Field of Battle, Fredericktown, Oct. 22.— In connection with Col. Plumer's command, we have routed the rebels of Thompson and Lowe, estimated at 5,000. Their loss was heavy, ours small, and confined principally to the 1st Indiana cavalry. We captured four heavy guns. Lowe, the rebel leader, was killed. Major Goritt and Capt. Hyman, of the Indi ma eavalry, were killed in a charge on a

The command of Col. Plumer, referred to above, was on Friday morning last ordered forward by Gen. Graut from Cape Girardeau, with instructions to move toward-Fredericktown and cut off the retreat of Thompson and Lowe's army.

This force consisted of Marsh's and the 8th Illinois regiment, a section of Taylor's battery, and Slewart & Soberman's cavalry, all from Cairo; also a part of Plumer's 11th Missouri, a part of Ross 21st Illinois, and a section of Campbell's battery, all from Cape Girardean. The force from this point was composed of the 38th Illinois, Col. Carlins 32d Illinois, Col. Hovey; 21st Illinois, Col. Alexander; 8th Wisconsin, Col. Murphy; 1st Indiana eavalry, Col. Baker; and Capt. Hawkins' Independent Missonri cavalry, and four 6 pounders and two 24 pounders under Major Schofield of 1st Missouri light
